

Academy of Excellence: Miscellaneous Information for your Stay

About your room:

- Scott Residence Hall is divided into four-bedroom suites with a common living area and one bathroom.
- Students will be assigned four to a suite, and teachers will share with 1-3 other teachers.
- Furniture included in each suite: couch, chair, coffee table, end table, microwave, mini refrigerator, and sink
- Bedrooms are individual rooms and with one twin bed. There is no bedding provided.
- Cable and computer hook-ups are available in each room.

To make your stay more comfortable, please bring:

- Comfortable, casual clothes – you will be inside in cool classrooms, outside in the heat, riding on school buses, and getting your hands dirty
- Comfortable walking shoes (you will be walking every day)
- Raincoat or umbrella
- Bedding and pillow for your twin bed, along with extra blankets (AC works very well!)
- Alarm clock/TV/Radio
- Bath Towels
- Coffee Maker (if you can't wait until breakfast)
- Toiletries – soap, washcloth, Kleenex, etc.
- Drinking glasses for your room
- Teachers who wish to golf, bring golf clubs

Please keep in mind these are suggestions.

You will have access to the Scott Hall cafeteria and snacks. We promise you will not go hungry!

How to Find College Park – Scott Hall:

Whether you are traveling east or west, take the 72nd Street exit from Interstate 80. Turn north on 72nd Street (from the east turn right, or from the west turn left). Go approximately 1½ miles to Pine Street (light across from Wal-Mart). Turn right and continue approximately one mile until you see College Park-Scott Residence Hall and Conference Center on the left.

Parking will be available in the lot to the west of Scott Residence Hall. Please enter through the west doors. The front desk will assist you with check in.

Please call for directions if you get lost:
